

Investigations Intern

The Wildlife Justice Commission is an innovative, young, mission-driven organisation leveraging the rule of law and the power of investigation.

Our mission is to disrupt transnational, and help dismantle organised transnational criminal networks trading in wildlife, timber and fish. We do this by collecting evidence and turning it into accountability.

Background

The Wildlife Justice Commission (WJC) believes our wildlife is not for sale to the highest bidder and must be protected from traffickers who turn endangered species into trinkets and jewelry.

Our investigators work undercover to drive the wildlife criminals out of the shadows and bring an end to their multi-billion-dollar dirty business. The WJC combines compelling evidence of wildlife crime gained through in-depth intelligence-led investigations with high-level political engagement with governments and law enforcement agencies to put an end to wildlife trafficking.

Role description

We are seeking a conscientious quick learner to strengthen our current team in the capacity of Investigations Intern. We are targeting an energetic self-starter who can demonstrate creative approaches towards assigned tasks. You question why poaching and trafficking of wildlife are spiraling out of control. You are interested in a getting to know or increase your available knowledge on how a foundation like the Wildlife Justice Commission runs its operations. As well as we are, you are dedicated to a future in which wildlife crime no longer occurs because governments effectively enforce the law.

Main responsibilities

- Conduct investigations on various social media platforms and compile information into reports;
- Assist in various tasks of the investigations teams, i.e. organising the Case File;
- Conduct a variety of open source research in order to support the investigations team.

Requirements

- Ambitious young professional: You have been successful in your studies and extracurricular activities. You are currently in the process of obtaining your bachelor or Master degree;
- Doer: You get things done. You are hands-on and proactive. You pay attention to details. You are willing to go the extra mile to meet deadlines, you are result oriented. You are very quality-oriented and stress resistant;
- Quick learner: You are highly analytical and structured in thinking. You learn new things very quickly; You do not get rest until you find the missing puzzle. You have extensive experiences with multitasking and tasks prioritisation;
- Team player: You work and think in teams, interdisciplinary and multicultural. You welcome feedback and use that to learn, improve, and get better;

- Excellent communicator: You are fluent in English. You communicate excellently both verbally and in writing;
- Owner: You are taking ownership. You work independently and are ready to assume full responsibility for your deliverables.

We offer you

- An internship of 32 working hours per week for a period of six months at our office in The Hague;
- A strong focus on coaching and support by your supervisor and colleagues that will help you grow as a professional;
- An international environment that is bound to further improve your English language skills;
- Financial remuneration of €200,- per month for 32 working hours per week;
- Travel expenses covered up to €100,- per month depending on the place of residence;
- A number of paid holiday hours;
- A flexible work schedule.

Looking To Make A Difference for Wildlife?

Please e-mail your updated CV and motivation letter in English by email only to careers@wildlifejustice.org. Should you have any questions about this position, please email us to this address.

Please indicate Investigations Internship on the email subject line and let us know how you learned about this position.

Only students enrolled at a Dutch University throughout the complete term of the internship can be considered. Graduates can only apply if they remain enrolled after graduation.

Deadline to submit applications: 3 March 2019, 18h00 Central European Time

Please note that only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

