Wildlife Justice Commission

Law enforcement and legal experts fighting transnational organised wildlife crime.

Wildlife Justice is a young, innovative, mission-driven organisation, leveraging the rule of law and the power of investigation to stop the extinction of our planet's wildlife. Our mission is to disrupt and help dismantle the transnational criminal networks trafficking wildlife, timber, and fish. We do this by conducting intelligence-led investigations and turning evidence into accountability so that organised crime is not driving species to extinction.

To support this mission and our continued growth, we are seeking a

Strategic Partnership Intern
6 months, starting on 4 January 2027
Full-time (40 hours per week)
Location: Bangkok, Thailand or work remotely in consultation with Strategic Partnerships Director

Position Overview

We are seeking a motivated, conscientious intern to support our Strategic Partnerships team. You are a curious, proactive learner and researcher who is passionate about protecting wildlife and understanding the inner workings of a nonprofit focused on justice and the rule of law. Like us, you envision a world where wildlife crime no longer exists because laws are effectively enforced.

You will work closely with the Strategic Partnership Officer and the Director of Strategic Partnerships.

Tasks and Responsibilities

- Conduct legal and diplomatic research to support ongoing initiatives.
- Draft reports, memos, and documentation related to legal and diplomatic affairs.
- Contribute to the development and maintenance of our legal research database.

Requirements

Knowledge and Skills

- Ambitious early-career professional: You are currently pursuing or have obtained a master's degree and have a strong academic and extracurricular track record.
- Action-oriented: You are hands-on, detail-focused, proactive, and committed to delivering quality work on time.
- Quick learner: Analytical, structured, and resourceful. You do not stop until you have solved the problem.
- Team player: You enjoy collaborating in multicultural teams, value constructive feedback, and take initiative. When working remotely, you are comfortable working independently and managing your tasks effectively.

- Excellent communicator: Fluent in English (spoken and written). Additional languages, such as German, French, Portuguese or Mandarin, are a plus.
- Independent and accountable: You take ownership of your tasks and deliverables and can work on your own.
- Tech-savvy: Proficient in MS Word, Excel, and PowerPoint; experience with databases is an advantage.
- Affinity with the mission statement of the organisation.
- Sensitivity in working with a culturally diverse, inter-disciplinary, multi-lingual, global team.
- Capability to maintain a high degree of confidentiality.

Eligibility:

- Non-EU resident
- Pursuing or in possession of a master's degree, or equivalent

We offer

- An internship of 40 hours per week for a period of 6 months.
- Coaching and support to support your professional growth.
- An international environment working in English.
- Flexible work schedule and remote working options.
- An internship compensation of 400 USD per month.
- Paid vacation days (in accordance with legislation in force).
- A chance to make a difference!

Looking to make a difference for wildlife?

Please send your CV and cover letter in English, as well as a legal writing/sample (paper, memorandum, university assignment showcasing your legal research skills) to: i.godonoga@wjcinvestigations.org. CVs without cover letters will not be considered. Should you have any questions about this position, please email us at i.godonoga@wjcinvestigations.org. Please indicate Strategic Partnerships Intern in the email subject line.

The Wildlife Justice Commission employs staff of various nationalities, cultures, languages, and opinions. We welcome applications from all candidates for this position.

Deadline to submit applications: 22 November 2026 (GMT+7)

Applications will be processed on a rolling basis.

This internship is open only to non-EU residents. If you are appointed, you will be contracted via the Wildlife Justice Commission office in Bangkok.